DOLPHIN STAFF 1963

DEDICATION

TO MR. LEONARD NOVAK Of Root Photographers

We dedicate this 1963 edition of the DOLPHIN because, true artist that he is, he has known how to capture the heart and soul of the WORLD OF THE WEBER STUDENT and immortalize it in pictorial review for four generations of students.

THE WORLD OF

The world of the Weber student is an exciting world that he will never forget. It is in the Palmer-Latrobe-Belden-Lockwood quadrangle. It is in the classrooms, laboratories, and the library where high scholarship and nobility of character are the aims of the Resurrectionist Fathers for him and where he becomes acquainted with the great men and women of human history. It is in the life-long friends he will make with his teachers and his classmates. It is in the cafeteria and the gym and on the stage and on the dance floor. It is in the football stadia, the baseball diamonds, the basketball courts, and the swimming pools at the school's disposal. It is the wonderful and sometimes painful world of the teen-ager struggling to come to terms with himself and the world around him. Above all it is in the chapel where he learns that education in its deepest sense is empty and meaningless if it does not have God as its center.

This world of the Weber student, really a trinity of Academics, Extra-Curricular Activities, and Athletics, is described in the pages to follow.

THE ADMINISTRATION

THE CORE AND SOUL OF THE WORLD OF THE WEBER STUDENT

Father George is the prime mover in the world of the Weber student and is known among all the students as a "cool guy." He understands their problems and is always ready to help them if he can.

As a leader, Father George has displayed himself as the finest in his field by the numerous improvements in the physical plant, student body, and academic standards.

Father George

Father Chester shares the task of systematic management of administrative affairs with the Principal. A Specialist in Education he is kept busy as Counselor, Prefect of the Junior Class, and Moderator of the Senior Social Committee.

Weber students are hard workers. They must be to keep up with the demands their teachers make of them. For Weber has high standards and it insists that each student maintain them.

The present Academic, Scientific, Engineering, and General curricula have been designed in accordance with the strict requirements of Resurrectionist education and have the full approval of the State of Illinois, North Central Association, and the National Catholic Association. A boy who meets Weber's standards and requisites for graduation is sufficiently qualified to enter any university or college.

To meet the changing needs of its students and help them discover their particular interests, aptitudes and capabilities, Weber has forged a Guidance Program of an Educational, Vocational, Personal, and Spiritual nature that challenges them to investigate themselves at every level and to make such adjustments and improvements as are required to insure their mental, spiritual, cultural, and social growth.

These various aims of Catholic education are further supplemented and perfected through formal prayer, First Friday, Lenten, and Marian devotions, frequent reception of the sacraments, and annual retreats. For the Weberite is never allowed to forget that his religion is the basis of his every class and his every activity and that he is obliged to make his contribution to life as a Catholic.

The Reverend Principal, Father George Jendrach C.R., presents the class rings to the Seniors of the Class of 1963.

SENIORS

CLASS OF 1963

Realization that they were Seniors dawned on the Class of '63 on the morning of November 16 when in solemn ceremony they received their class rings from the Reverend Principal, Father George Jendrach C.R. That the portals of Weber were soon to close upon them and that they would be joining the ranks of thousands of other alumni, registered only, however, on January 28 when they started leaving for the Senior Closed Retreats at Villa Redeemer in Glenview.

As they began to look to the future with enthusiasm they began to recall all the joys and heartbreaks and successes that were theirs in the WEBER WORLD and would now be a part of them as they went their separate ways into the wide world beyond.

At the funeral of the late Mr. J. H. Smith, the Rev. Father [Name] officiated. In the foreground are the Rev. Father and the two women in white robes. The man in the center of the group is the late Mr. J. H. Smith.

SOPHO

ACQUIRE ATHLETIC SKILL IN WEBER

Casey Pascoe has already won a state basketball championship

All Sophomores are scholars, athletes, and Don Juans without peer. One has only to ask them, And they're every where. You can't avoid them. They've infiltrated the whole WEBER WORLD. Their confident enthusiasm knows neither bounds nor limits, and that is precisely what endears them to faculty and fellow-students alike. The coaches feed them to the long and lean Seniors on the fields of combat and, bloody but unbowed, they come back for more of some. The teachers load them so with work that they spout Caesar

in the Rite of Passage... Made in both the Latin Rite and the Oriental Rite

In their sleep and bisect angles in their dreams, and they concentrate on beefing up their averages. Juniors and Seniors tolerate them so as to be able to assert their superiority over them, and they take it all in stride, sometimes even turning tables on them. At Sock Hops and dances, Freshmen and Sophomores from Alvernia, Madonna, and Notre Dame feign to ignore them, but when asked to dance... oh what a change of heart. Thank God for Sophomores, for without them what would High Schools do?

Les Koryczon with the bass drum is typical of the many Sophs in the Band

THE

The earth orbits around the sun, the seasons come and go, and night follows day in an unchanging pattern. The life of man on earth, however, knows no such static pattern. In every epoch man must find new symbols and representations of the unchanging truths of God revealed and taught him. He must discover again the meaning of life to him as an individual and as a member of society. And this he can only do through self-expression or self-creation in activities.

So it is, too, that the young Weberite's pursuit of knowledge is only partially satisfied in the classroom. It is outside the classroom through participation in the spiritual, cultural, and social activities offered by the school that he can put into concrete form the thoughts and impressions that are exclusively his own and learn from them.

In the EXTRA-CURRICULAR WORLD OF WEBER a student can learn much from the military roll of drums, or from the liturgical chant at Mass, or from the planning and running of a social year. He will certainly experience both failure and success; criticism and a pat on the back. Best of all, he will know the thrill of accomplishment and completion. And each time that he does he will grow just a bit more mature. For the more he engages in any activity, the more he will discover that his parents and family and friends and teachers are only a part of an appreciative audience spurring him on to greater things; that he can no longer depend on them to do his tasks for him; that success lies only in himself.

CHRISTMAS IN SONG

WEBER - ALVERNIA CHORUS

The Weber Glee Club, the Alvernia Glee Club, and the Weber Drama Department, under the direction of Mr. Frank Zielinski, Sister M. Marcina, O.S.F., and Mr. Frank Calzaretta respectively, combined their varied and many talents to produce a Christmas Program of song interspersed with dramatic tableaux that will long live in the memories of all who attended. The Christmas Story was never more alive, more vibrant, and more personal than that night.

WEBER MARCHING BAND

CATHOLIC HIGH SCHOOL CHAMPS 1962 - 1963

Not that any Weberite ever doubted the Weber Marching Band's claim to the title, but in open competition with the other Catholic High School Bands of the city at the Armory on Kedzie and North on December 16, the Weber Band officially gained recognition as the Catholic High School Champion of Chicago. Whether the Rev. Moderator, Father Fred Ciesla, C.R., or the Band's esteemed Director, Mr. Glenn Smith, was more overjoyed is a moot question. Certainly the Band Members were not less so. Add another crown to the SCHOOL OF CHAMPIONS.

No less distinguished were the Band's performances at the Annual Band Festival held on February 26 at Weber, or at the Catholic Band Festival held on March 24 at McCormick Place, or at the Spring Concert on April 21 at Weber.

SANCTUARY SOCIETY

SERVES GOD BY SERVING HIS PRIESTS

It is the privilege and duty of the members of the Sanctuary Society to assist the priests at all religious ceremonies held at the school and to service the Faculty Chapel on Sundays and Holy Days of Obligation. Led by Denis Oross, they have done this efficiently and systematically while fostering in themselves a deeper awareness of spiritual sanctity.

Officers of the HERALDERS: John Pregzik (Secretary), Michael Opiolo (President), Ronald Obuchowski (Vice-President), Edward Sullivan (Treasurer), and Richard Galusko (Sergeant-at-Arms). Rev. Edwin Zygmunt, C.R. (Moderator) and Mr. Frank Calzaretta (Director).

The Heralders, an organization devoted to performing and fostering interest in dramatics, has perennially given experience to its members and enjoyment to the student body. This year, under the direction of Mr. Frank Calzaretta, Weber Thespians rendered entertaining performances of such plays as THE DESPERATE HOURS, THE LARK, and BYE BYE BIRDIE.

In an attempt to combine sacred song with sacred drama, The Heralders joined with the Weber and Alvernia Choruses to produce a dramatized CHRISTMAS IN SONG, proving that no task is too difficult for Weber actors.

It must be noted, however, that the unit is not just a group of actors who like to put on plays and skits; it is comprised of hard-working men, whose jobs vary from actor to stage-hand, from make-up artist to electrician.

The Weber library is the largest High School library in Chicago and its circulation is heavy. The Departments of English, History, and Religion, particularly, see to it. The Library Club, therefore, has its work cut out for it. Besides issuing books and shelving them they have to find them for all comers or, at least, help them find them. Then there are the current magazines that have to be filed each month, not to mention the posters that have to be put up or the special projects of the year.

BUILDERS OF SCHOOL SPIRIT

When a student graduates, he leaves Weber with a great variety of attributes. Among these are the experience and maturity gained through the intellectual, social, and athletic activities in which he has participated. But, far more significant than these, he departs with the renowned Weber spirit which permeates all these activities, and binds them together in an attitude which typifies and embodies true school spirit. At Weber the Indians, the Cheerleaders, the Publicity Club, and the Senior Social Committee together with the Band and the Color Guard are the links between the student body and all school activities. The focal point of their role is precisely to instill and foster good school spirit. It is spirit not only for the gridiron, the court, or the diamond, or the pool. These are only some of its outlets. It should extend to the classroom, to the stage, to the ball room, to the home. Such spirit makes for supremacy in every field of endeavor.

THE

The Resurrectionist Fathers regard High School as a training ground where the physical, intellectual, and moral powers of the teen-ager are so to be developed as to prepare him for the accomplishment of his life's work and for the attainment of his eternal destiny. Hence the Resurrectionist philosophy of education takes into consideration the whole person and the whole of human personality. Now a boy can be taught to think with mathematics and language, his interest can be sparked with science; he can be helped to understand himself with history, English, and speech. But what course can teach the student to fit himself into the cold, hard reality of life, to roll with the punch, to function as a small cog in the vast human machine? Such things cannot come from a textbook, they must be learned from experience; and this is the purpose of athletics.

Athletics, of course, are of great value in physical development, but Weber High School is not interested solely in building great athletes. Weber is concerned with the well-rounded individual. For it is by participation in athletic contests that the student learns that if he wishes to accomplish anything, he must work for it. Only through team sports can he learn to work in unity and harmony with his teammates. On the football field, baseball diamond, basketball court, tennis court, cinder track, golf course, in the swimming pool, in the shell he discovers that defeat is not the "end of all, but rather a stepping stone to later success.

And when a boy realizes that victory is not an easy thing and he can take both triumph and disaster in stride, then athletics have served their purpose. For the athletic world is the first taste of the hard world the student must adjust to if he is to meet with success.

A GLIMPSE OR TWO AT THE 1962 SEASON LEAGUE GAMES

R. Wallenberg, L. Stolar, S. Court, and E. Bush show the determination of the Weber line that wouldn't quit against a gigantic Bro. Rice team. L. Janik's TD and R. Wallenberg's 2 point conversion brought the victory.

D. Karnick averaged 5 yards per carry against Fenwick but fumbles prevented us from scoring in what was the best effort against the Friars in season and post-season play. J. Martin and R. Wallenberg flank Dan.

W. Krawak... S. Brynarski... R. Wallenberg... L. Janik... J. Hoffman... and M. Brynarski shone among the sophomores.

...and away. He alone gained more than the entire Loyola team. But they... us from landing a play-off berth... and J. Hoffman can be spotted.

Jim Hoffman had to travel only 31 yds on this TD run. His previous carry was a 65 yard punt return. L. Janik is right behind Jim, but where is R. Wallenberg?

John Martin picked his holes carefully to gain 66 yards in 6 attempts. We surpassed St. Philip in every department but with the rain, and snow, and mud against us we could only eke out a tie.

CREW WEBER'S WATER WANDERERS

Weberites seldom see their Crew in action. Most of the Regattas are out-of-state events. This year, for instance, the Crew performs only once in Chicago and that at the Central States Regatta on May 11. The other engagements are against the U. of Wisconsin Freshmen on April 27 and St. John's Military Academy on May 4 in Wisconsin and against Culver Military Academy on May 18 and the U. of Purdue on May 25—in Indiana. Since all of these meets are on Saturdays and the distances are not too great, many hardy Weberites and a good number of parents make the trips to cheer our oarsmen on to victory. It is even hoped that a fine representation of fans will journey with the Crew to London, Canada for the National Schoolboy Regatta being held on July 6. Bladesmen have to be tough. Pantywaists don't make the Crew. Crewmen keep in practice and good physical strength all year long by working out in the gym or on the water. And rowing skills are developed by daily ten-mile stints in the Lincoln Park Lagoon.

Middle Group, Sophs. S. Borczyk, J. Kinahan, S. Madura, K. Kaczowski, J. Szafrański

Bottom Group, Freshmen: D. Namellini, V. (Lashon), R. Rogers, D. Kraft, T. Locascio, D. (Lashon), W. Wroblewski, K. Kaczowski, M. Sokołowski, M. Rice, J. P. (Lashon), W. Wroblewski, R. Szeluga, J. Wereszczynski, D. Rupp, J. (Lashon), E. Kalinowski, R. Podjasek, E. Rudzinski

Coach Gregory Glob who took over the Weber Crew from September to April, when Coach Bill Ostendorf had to put in a 6 month hitch with the Navy, is at center here. He and the Crew had just posed for the colored picture on pp. 128-129. Found there with him are: Chester Weres, James Krawski, James Ellisnik, Charles Krol, Robert Kuczek, Michael Halberger, Edward Butzynski, Alan Hoppe, and Donald Kraft.

A hundred and five men answered Coach Joseph Sassano's call to the opening sessions of the spring track season. The seventy-five young freshmen and sophomores will provide for the varsity in the coming years . . . and handsomely, if we are to judge by Sophs C. Fergus, K. McHugh, and W. Nowak who have already reached top form in the Mile, Shot Put, and High Jump respectively. Junior Robert Witek took first honors in the 440 against Gordon and then again in the 880 against St. Rita. The latter meet also saw Senior Leonard Janik come in first in the 100. Most of the remaining Juniors and Seniors are sure to be heard from as the season progresses. Coaches Sassano and Righelmer think they have two fine squads

TENNIS TEAMS LOOK TO SMASHING SEASONS

This year's Senior Varsity team should go places. Last year it had a 3-2 record against tougher competition and its class should come through. Father John Labno, C.R., has molded it into a smooth functioning unit worthy of the Weber tradition.

The Junior Varsity is striving valiantly to better last year's record of one win and four losses. No new blood has been infused but the experience gained last year should prove to be efficacious.

GOLFERS CHALLENGE FAIRWAYS

The 1962 Varsity Golf Team had several experienced men return from last year's team which finished in third place. Paced by Captain Larry Szaraniec they hope to improve on this.

The Junior Varsity has been strengthened by new comers and there is much room for optimism within their ranks as well.

Father John Labno is sure he has several potential par busters on both squads.

SENIOR SWIMMERS

In his first season as senior swimming coach, Mr. Arthur Belmonte inherited a squad which was minus many of its former stars and eked out only a fair showing of 3 wins and 7 losses. However, the Seniors captured the St. Philip Invitational and the Leo Invitational meets and took third place in the Fenwick Senior Relays. In the Senior City meet Ray Zeason broke the Catholic League record in the 200-yd individual medley and Steve Borowski annexed the 100-yd butterfly and the 400-yd freestyle events, both in record times.

Belmonte and Mr. Ken Welles to display the trophy.

JUNIOR SWIMMERS

Mr. Arthur Belmonte's Junior Squad out-swam Morgan Park, St. Philip, Foreman, and St. Ignatius for a 4 wins and 6 losses record. In the Loyola Junior Relays the Weber Junior relay team was the only one to defeat Fenwick. This took place in the 200-yd individual medley relay and in the 400-yd freestyle relay and assured Weber a 3rd place trophy. In the Junior City meet Steve Borowski set Catholic League records in the 50-yd butterfly and 100-yd freestyle events.

With a fine record of individual effort and outstanding team development, Coach Art Belmonte and Mr. Ken Wallin were able to bring to Weber both the very first Section Championship and the very first Catholic League Championship in Water Polo . . . for this sport has only been introduced this year. . . . And our water jockeys won every single game they played. Herewith is a listing of the new Weber Greats!

A black and white photograph showing a group of people in traditional or formal attire. A central figure, likely a woman, is wearing a long, white, flowing dress or gown. She is surrounded by other individuals, some of whom are also wearing light-colored, possibly white, clothing. The background is dark and indistinct. The overall composition suggests a formal occasion, such as a wedding or a ceremonial event.

Perhaps this is your vocation. Perhaps God's grace will move your will to join the happy postulants and novices pictured here at St. Joseph's Novitiate, Ridgefield, Illinois.

THINK IT OVER . . . Ask Our Lord to show you His way. He won't let you down. There may be some special task in our Congregation that God is saving us for you.

TALK IT OVER WITH ONE OF THE PRIESTS AT SCHOOL . . . Do you have the talent, health, and virtue necessary for the religious life? He can help you make a decision.

Want to take a quick peek into the Novitiate itself?

St. Joseph's Novitiate is a place of prayer, study, and work. It is a place where young men and women are preparing for the religious life. The novitiate is a period of time when the candidate is learning about the life of the Congregation and is being formed in the faith and in the virtues. It is a time of growth and development, and it is a time when the candidate is learning to live in community with others. The novitiate is a place where the candidate is learning to love God and to love their neighbor, and it is a place where they are learning to live in the spirit of the Gospel.

Postulant, Mary Rose, is the Assistant to the Novice Master and sports her own collection of books.

Postulant, John, is the Novice Master and is in charge of the novitiate.
